Family-Based Immigration Law: Part 2

*CLE Credit Available

Attendance at trainings is limited to staff of NYC member agencies and the staff of government agencies, BIA-recognized agencies, and 501(c) nonprofit organizations that provide legal services under the direct supervision of an immigration attorney.

Tuesday, October 6, 2009

2:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.

Location: The New York Immigration Coalition, 137-139 West 25th Street, 12th Floor, NY 10001 (between 6th & 7th Avenues)

TOPICS COVERED IN SESSION:

This training supplements the training “Family-Based Immigration Law: Part 1.” This training will provide a basic overview of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and federal regulation requirements for nonimmigrant visas for fiancé(e)s, spouses, and children of U.S. citizens. This training will also cover potential avenues to legal immigration status through family-based immigration even though the family relationship that might have formed the basis for immigration has broken down, such as the basic eligibility requirements for self-petitioning under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), widow/widower self-petitions, and humanitarian reinstatement. The training will also cover the basic eligibility requirements for removing the “conditions” on conditional residents. Because many of these topics are covered more in depth in separate trainings, this training covers only basic statutory and regulatory eligibility requirements. It is recommended that attendees first take “Family-Based Immigration Law: Part 1” before taking this training. The training will be conducted by Luz E. Medrano, Esq. and Magdalen Kawinski, Esq. of the CUNY Citizenship & Immigration Project. CLE credits: 3 credits in professional practice. This course provides transitional credit for newly admitted attorneys and non-transitional credit for experienced attorneys.

Register by October 1, 2009

The NYIC has been certified by the New York State CLE Board as an accredited provider of continuing legal education in New York State from May 28, 2007 to May 27, 2010.

Funding for these trainings has been provided by the NYS Citizenship Initiative, Bureau of Refugee and Immigrant Assistance.

REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS—PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- All people registering to attend a CLE training through a NYIC member agency, other nonprofit organization, government agency, or employee of a private attorney must submit a letter on the agency or organization's letterhead verifying that the registrant is an employee of the agency or organization and authorizing the registrant to attend the training(s). The letter must be signed by the head of the agency or the managing attorney.
- Non-member agencies can not participate in ICTI CLE trainings unless the agency is recognized by the BIA or is providing services under the direct supervision of an immigration attorney.
- NYIC members that are not BIA recognized and that are not supervised by an immigration attorney can not attend CLE trainings unless the head of the member agency provides a written and signed attestation that s/he understands what constitutes the "practice of law" and that the member does not and will not engage in the unauthorized practice of law. The NYIC can provide a form attestation letter for the head of the member agency to sign. Please contact jvidal@thenyic.org to obtain the attestation form.
- Non-member agencies that are not recognized by the BIA but that are providing legal services under the direct supervision of an immigration attorney must provide a letter, from that supervising attorney, stating that the attorney supervises the work of the registrant(s).
- NYIC member agencies and other 501(c) organizations submitting registrations on behalf of their staff to attend CLE trainings must submit a copy of their IRS 501(c) letter in order to receive the member or nonprofit rates.
- The NYIC will not knowingly accept registration to attend CLE trainings from any person who provides legal representation without authorization pursuant to 8 CFR Part 292, such as "immigration consultants" and "notarios."
- Effective January 1, 2008 the "NYIC Private Attorney Supporter" category is an individual membership and not membership for the entire office. This means that if an attorney in private practice is a NYIC member in the "business/professional" category, her/his membership extends only to the attorney and not to other attorneys or other support staff in her/his office. Each staff in the office must have a "business/professional" NYIC membership in order to receive the NYIC-member training discount.
- Please note: Effective April 1, 2009, there is a new fee category for "NYIC Private Attorney Supporter". This means that private attorney NYIC supporters will pay a higher fee than the category for "Staff of 501(c) NYIC member agencies."
