Volunteer Lawyers Project

Volunteer attorneys handle a wide array of cases including matrimonial matters, custody cases in Supreme Court, individual bankruptcy, personal injury and negligence defense, estate matters, release of accounts blocked by judgment creditors, and various other civil matters.

-The Landlord/ Tenant Project and the Attorney of the Day Program assists hundreds of men, women and children in court to prevent homelessness.

-The Breast Cancer Legal Advocacy Project assists individuals with health insurance problems.

-The Bankruptcy Clinics assist families either with advice or a Chapter 7 bankruptcy, when appropriate.

Members have the opportunity to give legal assistance to residents of Nassau County through the Volunteer Lawyers Project, which is supported by the Nassau County Bar Association Fund.

Created as a partnership between the NCBA and the Nassau/Suffolk Law Services, the Volunteer Lawyers Project provides pro bono legal representation for residents who urgently need legal services. This year, we have selected October 28 and 29 for our campaign to coincide with the American Bar Association's National Pro Bono Week.

As painful as these difficult economic times are for all of us, the affect on the poor is staggering. We need your help now to continue the important work of the Volunteer Lawyers Project.

Please take a moment to fill out the form below and send in your donation. The suggested contribution, as a minimum, is the equivalent of one billable hour, and is fully tax deductible.
