

Public Interest Law Foundation presents:

Pro Bono Week

October 24-28, 2011

Monday, October 24

12:00-1:00pm

Room A

Lunch provided.

Pro Bono From the Start

Recent graduates from both the public and private sectors will discuss pro bono's influence on their law school careers and beyond. Come see about how Pro Bono work can play a key role in your practice while looking for a job and after you find it.

Tuesday, October 25

12:00-1:00pm

Room C

Lunch provided.

The Intersection of Public Interest and Pro Bono

Learn from three senior public interest attorneys about the vital role pro bono work plays in public interest law. A must see for anyone interested in public interest law!

Wednesday,
October 26

No Pro Bono Week event.

Check out the Illinois Appellate Court event!

Thursday, October 27

12:00-1:00pm

Auditorium

Lunch provided.

Event co-sponsored by the Office of Career
Planning and Professional Development.

Making a Big Difference at a Big Firm: Pro Bono in the Private Sector

Two leaders in the private sector who have spearheaded pro bono initiatives will provide insight on how to incorporate pro bono work into a successful firm practice.

Keynote Speakers:

Marc Kadish - Director of Pro Bono Activities and Litigation Training, Mayer
Brown

Robert Byman, '70 -
Partner, Jenner & Block
Moderator: Dean Smith

Friday, October 28

12:00-1:00pm

Room F

Lunch provided.

Making it Work: Pursuing a Career in Public Interest

A panel of experienced public interest attorneys will address how a career in public interest law is a rewarding option. They will have tips on how to reach your career goals.

National Pro Bono Celebration
October 23 - 29, 2011

