

Pro Bono Day 2013

In conjunction with the ABA Pro Bono Celebration

October 23

This year's Pro Bono Day program at the new Saint Louis University School of Law downtown will offer the opportunity to see the new school and pick up some CLE credits too, while being updated on several aspects of Pro Bono service. Check out the agenda here.

Agenda and Schedule

- 12:15 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. Welcome
Hon. Michael A. Wolff, Dean, Saint Louis University School of Law
Jon M. Baris, President, Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis
Jim H. Guest
Pro Bono Committee, Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis
Keynote Address
Freedom's Fight: Tackling Pro Bono Cases for Survivors of Abuse Imprisoned for Killing in Self Defense – Amy Lorenz-Moser, Partner, Armstrong Teasdale LLP
- 1:10 – 2:00 p.m. A | Nuts and Bolts of Orders of Protection – Jason D. Dodson, Managing Attorney of the Lasting Solutions Program, Legal Services of Eastern Missouri
B | Adult Guardianships – Misty A. Watson, Associate, Danna McKittrick, P.C.
A | Landlord/Tenant Cases, Susan M. Alverson, Managing Attorney of the Housing Unit, Legal Services of Eastern Missouri
B | Helping Non-profit Organizations Gain Tax Exempt Status – Keith J. Kehrer, Partner, Bryan Cave LLP
- 2:10 – 3:00 p.m. Ten Ethical Considerations with Pro Bono Legal Work – Michael P. Downey, Partner, Armstrong Teasdale LLP.
- 3:10 – 4:00 p.m. Reception – Location TBD
- 4:00 – 6:00 p.m.

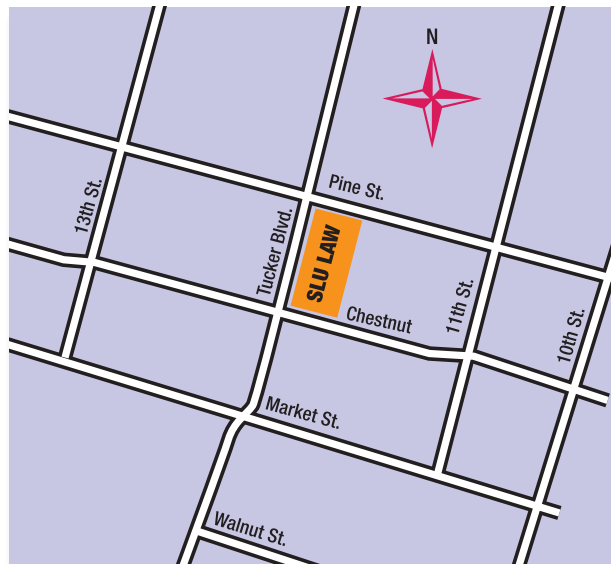

Tuition & Registration

Tuition is only $10 per person. The first 25 law students who register online will receive free admission.

Registration is quick and easy at www.bamsl.org. Select Oct. 23 on the calendar page and click on Pro Bono Day. You can pay by VISA, MasterCard, Discover or American Express.

CLE Credit. This program carries 3.4 MOCLE hours including 1.0 hour of Ethics credit.

Please note that food and drink are not permitted in the auditorium. Lunch is not provided with this program

Sponsored by

Gold Level

Armstrong Teasdale LLP
Greensfelder Hemker & Gale PC

and our Sustaining Partners

Produced by

