

Pro Bono Opportunities Day: Navigating Ethical Issues in Pro Bono Service

CLE Training & Breakfast with Judges of the First Judicial District of Pennsylvania

Tuesday, October 27, 2015

8:30am – 11:30am

Breakfast will be provided.

Montgomery McCracken Walker & Rhoads

123 South Broad Street, 28th Floor

Philadelphia, PA 19109

Philadelphia VIP, the hub of pro bono legal services in Philadelphia, is pleased to announce our annual training event, Pro Bono Opportunities Day, part of National Pro Bono Week 2015.

Join us as we navigate the ethics of pro bono work and the impact it has on low-income Philadelphians with critical legal needs.

The event will begin with a networking breakfast to discuss the importance of pro bono work with judges from the First Judicial District of Pennsylvania, followed by the CLE training event.

Breakfast Keynote Address:

Hon. Lisette Shirdan-Harris, Judge, Court of Common Pleas

CLE Panelists:

Michael B. Hayes, Litigation Partner, Montgomery, McCracken, Walker & Rhoads, LLP

Kim Takacs, Counsel, ACE Group

Mary Gay Scanlon, Pro Bono Counsel, Ballard Spahr LLP

Moderated By: Sara Woods, Executive Director, Philadelphia VIP

Each attorney who attends the seminar and accepts a VIP pro bono case within 6 months of the training will earn 2.5 ethics CLE credits.

To register, visit <http://phillyvip.org/content/training-registration-form>, or contact Christine Hammell via e-mail (phillyfellow@phillyvip.org) or phone (215-523-9567).

Special thanks to our generous host:

About VIP: Through the efforts of trained and supported pro bono volunteers, Philadelphia VIP provides equal access to justice for low-income Philadelphians and serves more than 3,000 individuals and families with critical legal issues every year who are unable to afford legal representation.