

THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH
S.J. QUINNEY
COLLEGE OF LAW
Pro Bono Initiative

Utah Celebrates Pro Bono Kick-Off

Monday, October 26, 2015

12:15 - 1:15 p.m., S.J. Quinney Moot Courtroom (Level 6), University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law

Lunch provided. RSVP requested »

Keynote Speaker: Rick Foster

Rick is a Utah native - born and raised in Bountiful. He obtained masters' degrees in Health Services and Business Administration at the University of Utah. Rick has been instrumental in the Pro Bono Initiative's recent partnership with The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the creation of the Community Legal Clinic: Salt Lake and Ogden. He will be speaking about the importance of service and the role of the Humanitarian Department worldwide.

Rick has worked for the LDS Church Welfare department for the past 19 years. He has served as the Director of Administration, Area Welfare Director, Manager of Welfare Square operations and now as the Manager of North America Humanitarian Operations. Rick interfaces each day with Utah's key service providers in meeting the needs of the homeless, those stricken by food insecurity, victims of domestic violence, and refugees.

This event is sponsored by the Utah State Bar, the Pro Bono Initiative and Utah Legal Services.

Free parking is available at Rice-Eccles Stadium. We strongly encourage you to use public transportation to College of Law events. Take TRAX University Red line to the Stadium stop. The College of Law is on the Red Route for the University's free campus shuttles (Carlson Hall stop). For other public transit options use UTA's Trip Planner or click the "Transit" option under "Get Directions" on Google maps.
