

IN CELEBRATION OF NATIONAL PRO BONO WEEK

Mississippi Volunteer Lawyers Project (MVLP) Presents:

“Mediation: Helping Couples Meet in the Middle”

Saturday, October 23, 2010
10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

 Volunteer Attorneys will meet and work with pre-screened clients to mediate their contested divorces. To help resolve their issues, volunteer mediators will help couples resolve their disputes. Once a resolution is reached, volunteer attorneys will prepare the joint complaint for divorce on site for the MVLP client.*

 BOTH spouses must be present to have their issues mediated.

Please bring the following documents:

- Copy of marriage license
- Pay Stubs to verify income
- Court orders related to their children
- Any documents associated with their case

Jackson Medical Mall
Common Area
350 West Woodrow Wilson Drive
Jackson, MS 39213

MISSISSIPPI VOLUNTEER LAWYERS PROJECT

Our Mission: MVLP enlists volunteer attorneys to provide equal access to justice for Mississippians of low income and limited means through high quality pro bono legal assistance.

Through the Mississippi Volunteer Lawyers Project, private attorneys provide pro bono legal assistance to eligible low-income people with important civil legal matters where counsel is otherwise unavailable. Potential clients are screened by Legal Services to determine income eligibility and legal merit.

MVLP will provide FREE Legal Services to individuals who meet income eligibility requirements. Call TODAY to schedule an appointment! Individuals without an appointment will be seen on a first come, first serve basis.

www.mvlp.net
601-960-9577