

GIBSON, DUNN & CRUTCHER LLP

Present

REPRESENTING A SMALL NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION:

A PRIMER FOR PRO BONO ATTORNEYS

Come join us for a course that will provide detailed information about the legal issues faced by small nonprofits that are taxexempt under Section 501(c)(3). It will cover the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as well as provide practical advice on the challenges facing smaller nonprofits. This course is designed for pro bono attorneys that do not represent taxexempt organizations as part of their regular practice.

Date: Wednesday, December 5, 2012

9:00 a.m. to 12 noon

Location: Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP

1050 Connecticut Avenue, NW

Suite 200

Washington, DC 20036

Cost: No charge

The presenter is Regina Hopkins, Assistant Director of the DC Bar Pro Bono Program responsible for the Community Economic Development Project. The CED Project provides training and assistance to over 1,500 nonprofits and small business each year.

To register: http://goo.gl/MSIsC