

Federal Bar Council

The Public Service Committee of the Federal Bar Council Presents

Comprehensive Immigration Law Training for Pro Bono Practitioners

Program Description

The Public Service Committee of the Federal Bar Council presents a three-evening training series aimed at familiarizing pro bono* practitioners with principles of immigration law and practice. The three trainings will focus, respectively, on the legal and practical framework of immigration law, asylum law, and collateral implications of immigration status in criminal proceedings. Interested attorneys need not attend all three sessions.

Panelists and Locations (Light dinner will be served)

March 2, 2011: Legal and Practical Framework of Immigration Law

Location: Milbank Tweed, One Chase Manhattan Plaza

Time: 6:30 – 9:00 p.m.

Opening remarks by the Hon. Judge Robert Katzmann, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit

Hon. Judge Noel Brennan, U.S. Immigration Court, Executive Office of Immigration Review

Robert Juceaum, Of Counsel, Fried Frank Harris Shriver & Jacobson, LLP

Aaron Morris, Senior Staff Attorney, Immigration Equality

March 9, 2011: Asylum Law Training

Location: Morrison & Foerster, LLP, 1290 Avenue of the Americas

Time: 6:30 – 9:00 p.m.

Opening remarks by the Hon. Judge Denny Chin, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit

Jennifer Kim, Director, Refugee Assistance Program, City Bar Justice Center

Mark Von Sternberg, Senior Attorney, Catholic Charities Community Services / Archdiocese of New York

Lauris Wren, Clinical Professor / Attorney-in-Charge, Asylum Clinic, Hofstra Law School

March 16: 2011: Immigration Consequences of Criminal Conviction

Location: Shearman & Sterling, LLP, 599 Lexington Avenue

Time: 6:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Opening remarks by the Hon. Sarah M. Burr, Assistant Chief Immigration Judge.

Jojo Annobil, Attorney-in-Charge, Immigration Law Unit, Legal Aid Society

James Harris, criminal defense attorney with extensive experience in post-conviction litigation

Lindsay Nash, Arthur Liman Fellow, Immigration Justice Clinic, Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law

Isaac Wheeler, Litigation Staff Attorney, Immigrant Defense Project

Program Coordinators

Ruti Smithline and Shiri Wolf, Morrison & Foerster LLP

Meghan Gabriel and Nehal Siddiqui, Milbank Tweed Hadley & McCloy LLP

Federal Bar Council Public Service Committee Chair

Jamie Levitt, Morrison & Foerster LLP

CLE Credit Information

March 2 and 16, 2011: These transitional CLE programs have been approved in accordance with the requirements of the CLE Board for CLE credits to be applied toward the areas of Professional Practice, Ethics, and Skills.

March 9, 2011: This transitional CLE program has been approved in accordance with the requirements of the CLE Board for CLE credits to be applied toward the Professional Practice requirement.

Registration Information

** Please note: Registrants are requested to take on a pro bono immigration case in the next 12 months. *****

Register by sending e-mail to: ImmigrationTraining@mofo.com.

Please include in the e-mail message: (1) your name; (2) e-mail address; (3) firm name; and (4) date of training session(s) you are registering for.

There is no charge for this program.

123 Main Street, Suite L100, White Plains, NY 10601-3104
(914) 682-8800 • Fax (914) 682-4400
federalbar@federalbarcouncil.com • www.federalbarcouncil.org