

"Funded through the New York State Attorney General Homeownership Protection Program"

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

The CFPB's Mortgage Servicing Regulations: What Foreclosure Advocates Need to Know

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's long-awaited servicing regulations, amending Regulation X under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act and Regulation Z under the Truth in Lending Act, have finally been promulgated, and will take effect on January 10, 2014. This training will provide an overview of the new regulatory landscape, highlighting both the positive aspects of the new regulations and where they come up short, and will alert practitioners to the contrasts between these new regulations and other relevant regulations, such as New York State's mortgage servicing regulations.

Date: Thursday March 14th, 2013 Time: 3:00PM - 5:00PM

Location:

Legal Services NYC Central Office 40 Worth St. Suite 606 (between Church St. and West Broadway)

Photo ID is required to enter the building

Trainer:

Josh Zinner
Co-Director
NEDAP

Credits: Skills: 2.00

To register for this training please visit us at

www.learningcenter.legalservicesnyc.org

E-mail all questions to learningcenter@ls-nyc.org

Please note: NO ADMITTANCE without prior registration. Payment (if applicable) is also required.

Scholarships are available upon request and are granted based on need.