TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

New York Foreclosure Settlement Conference Advocacy 2013: Making the Most of an Imperfect Process

While the New York foreclosure settlement conference may be frustrating, it is still one of the most important tools available to foreclosure defense practitioners. Join us for an update on recent case law concerning CPLR 3408 settlement conferences and an overview of best practices for maximizing efficacy of the process, building a record, motion practice and conducting evidentiary hearings enforcing the requirements of the settlement conference process and the duty to negotiate in good faith established by CPLR 3408(f).
