

PANEL DISCUSSION AND NETWORKING EVENT FOR LAW STUDENTS

NYC Right to Counsel in Housing Court: History of the Coalition and Looking Toward the Future

Date: Thursday, July 26, 2018

Time: 5:30 p.m.—8:00 p.m.

Place:

New York Law School
Faculty and Staff Commons, Second Floor
185 West Broadway, New York, NY 10013

Cost: Free

RSVP: www.nyls.edu/impactevent

In 2017, the New York City Mayor signed into law the right of low-income tenants to access legal counsel in eviction cases. Join us for a panel discussion on the work of the Right to Counsel NYC Coalition and the tenant movement to achieve this historic victory. Panelists will include community organizers, tenant leaders, and tenant attorneys. A networking reception with refreshments will follow.

Co-sponsors:

NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL

Impact Center for Public Interest Law

