

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

The New York City Bar Association's ("City Bar") Committee on Immigration & Nationality Law and the City Bar Justice Center are pleased to announce a CLE training opportunity for attorneys interested in representing clients in bond proceedings. The City Bar CLE Center will provide free New York CLE credit to those who attend the session. This session will qualify for an estimated ___ MCLE credits in Professional Practice in the State of New York for newly admitted and experienced attorneys.

Representing an Immigration Client at a Bond Hearing

Tuesday, September 24, 2013
6:00 pm - 8:30 pm
New York City Bar Association
42 West 44th Street
New York, NY 10036

This CLE will provide a practical introduction to representing immigrants in bond proceedings in Immigration Court. The panel will include retired Immigration Judge Sarah Burr, Assistant Chief Counsel Timothy McGuire, and experienced immigration practitioners Marie Mark, Alina Das, Ruben Loyo and Mark Noferi. The training will cover: how to make an initial determination of bond eligibility; how to contest findings of ineligibility; an overview of the factors used in determining the amount the bond will be set at; how to prepare a successful bond application; appealing the bond determination; payment of bond; and more. Materials will be provided to supplement the panel discussions.

Please RSVP by September 23, 2013 to:

Barbara Camacho
Fragomen Fellow
212.382.4790
bcamacho@nycbar.org
bcamacho@fragomen.com