Presented by the Tulsa Area Fair Housing Partnership

Hosted by the Greater Tulsa Association of REALTORS®

Thursday, September 28

Breakfast Sponsored By:

9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

GTAR Training Center, 11505 East 43rd Street, Tulsa, OK

Moderator: C. Lyn Larson

Senior Management Analyst, U.S. Dept. of HUD, Tulsa Field Office

Formerly known as the Landlord Training Seminar, this is the 19th year that the Greater Tulsa Association of REALTORS® (GTAR) and the Tulsa Area Fair Housing Partnership (TAFHP) have worked together to organize this important cost-free training for local real estate and leasing professionals, rental and apartment managers.

This year's training will focus on the following:

Pertinent Laws and Regulations, including state and federal Fair Housing Law

Fair Housing and Domestic Violence

Real world examples of landlords who have recently violated fair housing law

How sexual harassment cases can easily become violations of fair housing law

Emerging issues in fair housing law will be addressed

The training will conclude with a panel of expert speakers from the earlier segments for an open, always lively, question and answer session.

The seminar is FREE, but registration is required — Space is Limited.
