

Emergency Planning for Immigrant and Multi-National Families

Wednesday, May 10

EXPERIENCED FAMILY LAW AND ESTATE PLANNING ATTORNEYS:

Join us for an orientation on guardianship, custodial planning, powers of attorney, and estate planning for immigrants and multi-national families.

- Immigration policy under Trump and the impact on the immigrant community
- Family and personal planning in the context of the new era of immigration enforcement
- Probate court processes for guardianship and the protection of children and families
- Overview of juvenile dependency law and foster care system

SPEAKERS

NAOMI BRANDES

Court Investigator, Superior Court of California, San Francisco

KARL KROOTH

Immigrant Crime and Justice, a Professional Law Corporation

JENNIFER DALY

Dependency Director, Legal Services for Children

ANJULI ARORA DOW

Guardianship Director, Legal Services for Children

MODERATOR

ALICIA GÁMEZ

The Law Office of Alicia M. Gámez

The Bar Association of San Francisco
301 Battery Street, Third Floor

Program: 5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

This program is free, but an RSVP is required.

RSVP: WWW.SFBAR.ORG/CALENDAR